

Artist statement:

In this piece, people put together a symbol of unity and strength using an Asian traditional utensil: the chopstick. It's an idea of support for those affected by Asian discrimination, symboling that we are all a part of one world.