

Artist Statement:

Our world, more than ever, contains people of all different shapes, sizes, and colors. Embracing that is key to a happy and enriching society. While this poster demands an end to Asian hate, it also symbolizes our community, which is beautiful, colorful, different, and resilient. This typographic poster expresses these important highlights of our SVA community and is a reminder to stand against Asian hate.