

Artist Statement:

I took inspiration for this piece from Shintaro Kago, a Japanese guro artist. Guro is a very prominent and admired art style in Japanese culture, and i think the title of the piece (Athena Bursting Forth from a Rotting Corpse, Bursting at the Seams Herself) really encapsulates the struggle of Asian-Americans during this pandemic right now.