

Artist Statement:

I created this piece specifically for this exhibition. It is intended as a social media graphic, something that people could easily share, instantly reaching a wide audience. I wanted to participate because I consume pieces of Asian (specifically Southeast Asian) culture regularly and feel staying silent on the issues plaguing the Asian-American community is unacceptable.