

Artist statement:

This poster aims to support and portray the diversity of Asian communities. Within Asian communities, there are many different cultural groups. They are like independent circles that influence each other and support each other. When different cultures meet, new cultures form. I am trying to use this poster to initiate the solidarity of Asian Communities.